PARENT AND STUDENT RIGHTS IN ADMINISTRATION OF SURVEYS, ANALYSIS OR EVALUATIONS

All instructional materials, including supplementary materials and teachers' manuals, used with any survey, analysis or evaluations in a program or project supported by federal funds are available for inspection by parents and guardians.

No student will be required as part of any project or program supported by federal funds to submit to survey, analysis or evaluation that reveals information concerning:

1. political affiliations
2. potentially embarrassing mental or psychological problems
3. sexual behavior and attitudes
4. illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating or demeaning behavior
5. critical appraisals of close family members
6. privileged or similar relationships
7. religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or student's parent; or
8. Income, other than information necessary to establish eligibility for a program without the prior consent of adult or emancipated students, or written permission of parents.

The district shall protect student privacy during the administration of surveys and the collection, disclosure or use of personal information for marketing, sales or other distribution purposes.
